History of Mother's Day

During the 1600's, the early Christians in England celebrated a day to honor Mary, the mother of Christ. By a religious order the holiday was later expanded in its scope to include all mothers, and named Mothering Sunday. In the United States, Mother's Day was loosely inspired by the British day and was first suggested after the American Civil War by Julia Ward Howe (who wrote the words to the Battle hymn of the Republic). She began promoting the idea of a "Mother's Day for Peace" to be celebrated on June 2, honoring peace, motherhood and womanhood. Anna Jarvis is credited with introducing Mother's Day in the sense we celebrate it today. The first Mother's Day was observed on May 10, 1908, in a church service honoring Anna's mother in the Andrews Methodist Church in Grafton, West Virginia. It was here in the first observance that the carnations were introduced by Miss Jarvis. On May 9, 1914, the Presidential Proclamation declared the 2nd Sunday of May to be observed as Mother's Day to honor the mothers.

Cluster News

We have been blessed the past two years to have had Fr. Kevin Segerblom serve our parishes as Parochial Vicar. As part of the clergy transfers that happen every year around this time, Bishop DiLorenzo has asked Father Kevin to relocate and serve as Pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Salem, Virginia. In the coming weeks we will have an opportunity to bid him a fond farewell. As we continue to keep Fr. Kevin in our thoughts and prayers, we also prepare to welcome a new Parochial Vicar. Rev. Mr. David Cupps, who joined us for the Triduum, will be ordained to the priesthood on May 30th. Shortly thereafter he will be joining the Cluster Parishes. Let us remember him in prayer as he prepares for his ordination and his new ministry among us.

Questions or comments about the Cluster may be addressed to the Cluster Parishes Coordinator, Jeff Foster, by email at jeffrey.foster@cox.net or by calling 485-2142.
