Haiti Ministry

Greeting from our Fanmi (family) in Haiti. We spent five beautiful days with the community of Roy-Sec. Our simple gifts of personal hygiene items, socks, clothing, toys and especially the ball caps were received with much joy. We took the time to photograph each of our school children for our upcoming student sponsorship program. Father Pol suggested we hold our craft classes on Saturday and open them up to the community as well as the students. The classes in sewing, friendship bracelets, crocheting, and plastic canvas were a great success and they never really ended until we left Roy-Sec. We made and deepened friendships through this sharing of talents. The creativity and eagerness to learn of our Haitian friends was humbling. We had a contest for the best crafts with prizes for the winners, but we your missionaries received the greatest prize, the friendship, laughter and love of our Haitian Fanmi. As you know our prayers for water have been answered. A deep well dug on church/school property will be used to provide water to the church, school and also piped to the community cistern. Freshwater will improve the health of the community and decrease child mortality rates. As always thank you for your support. The Haiti meetings are at 6:00 at Holy Angels the second Tuesday of the month. Questions or comments: contact Helmi at 485-1933, Huguette at 558-1676 or Naida 686-4453

Cluster News

For many months we have prayed at every Mass "for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, religious life and all church ministries." We continue to ask the Lord to call men and women to service in the Church and to gift them with the courage to answer that call. Some will be called to priesthood or religious life, while others may be called to serve on a justice committee, a social outreach program, an adult formation team, to serve as a catechist, lector, server or other liturgical minister. Some will be called to serve the Church as professional lay staff. Every time someone steps forward to serve in one of these roles – and there are many more – it is an answer to our prayer. Already several of our young men have expressed an interest in the priesthood. Many have found helpful the updated vocations website www.richmonddiocese.org/vocations. Our job is to continue to pray and offer support for anyone who steps forward to answer the call...and to listen for a call of our own.

Questions or comments about the Cluster may be addressed to the Cluster Parishes Coordinator, Jeff Foster, by email at jeffrey.foster@cox.net or by calling 485-2142.

“Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Join your neighbors for a morning mini-retreat on Saturday, June 6th from 9am till noon to explore the faces and facts of poverty in America today. Did you know that more than 36 million people in the U.S. live below the federal poverty line? Children are almost half of that population. How can we change that picture? This retreat, sponsored by the Poverty Working Community of the Sowers of Justice, will help us find answers so that people of faith can make a difference. Come to listen, discuss, and pray together at Catholic Charities of Eastern Virginia Inc., 5361 Virginia Beach Boulevard, Virginia Beach (next to Saint Gregory the Great Catholic Church). Register by June 1st by contacting Virginia O’Keefe at # 757-430-8020 or okeefev@aol.com>.
